Washington, D.C.

November 14, 2013

Dear Congressman Price:

On behalf of more than seven million senior citizen activists, the 60 Plus Association thanks you for sponsoring 'The Employee Rights Act', which will give America's workers the right to a federally supervised secret ballot election to determine whether they wish to join—or remain in—a labor union. Fear of reprisal and threats of violence by militant organizers have long pressured employees to vote 'union'.

This act will also ease the burden of America's families by requiring prior approval from employees before spending dues money on political parties or candidates.

Thanks to your outstanding leadership, this effort provides much needed labor law reform and protections for America's workplace.

Employees should not be forced into compulsory union membership to get or keep their jobs. America's workers should have the right to join—or not to join—a union, free of intimidation, harassment, or threat of harm.

Sincerely,

James L. Martin
Chairman
